FOREWORD

With the publication of the 1950 "Prevost", our school days as undergraduates at Msgr. Prevost High School are brought to a close. May the pages of this annual tend to strengthen the bond of loyalty that grapples our hearts to our Alma Mater and to one another. May it serve as a repository of pleasant memories, of youthful friendships, and in the future may it offer inspiration, encouragement and hours of retrospective joy to us as loyal alumni.

In this yearbook, we have attempted to present a permanent pictorial record of the happiest days of our life — our schooldays.

If we have succeeded in this purpose, our efforts shall not have been in vain.

SAINT THOMAS D'AQUIN

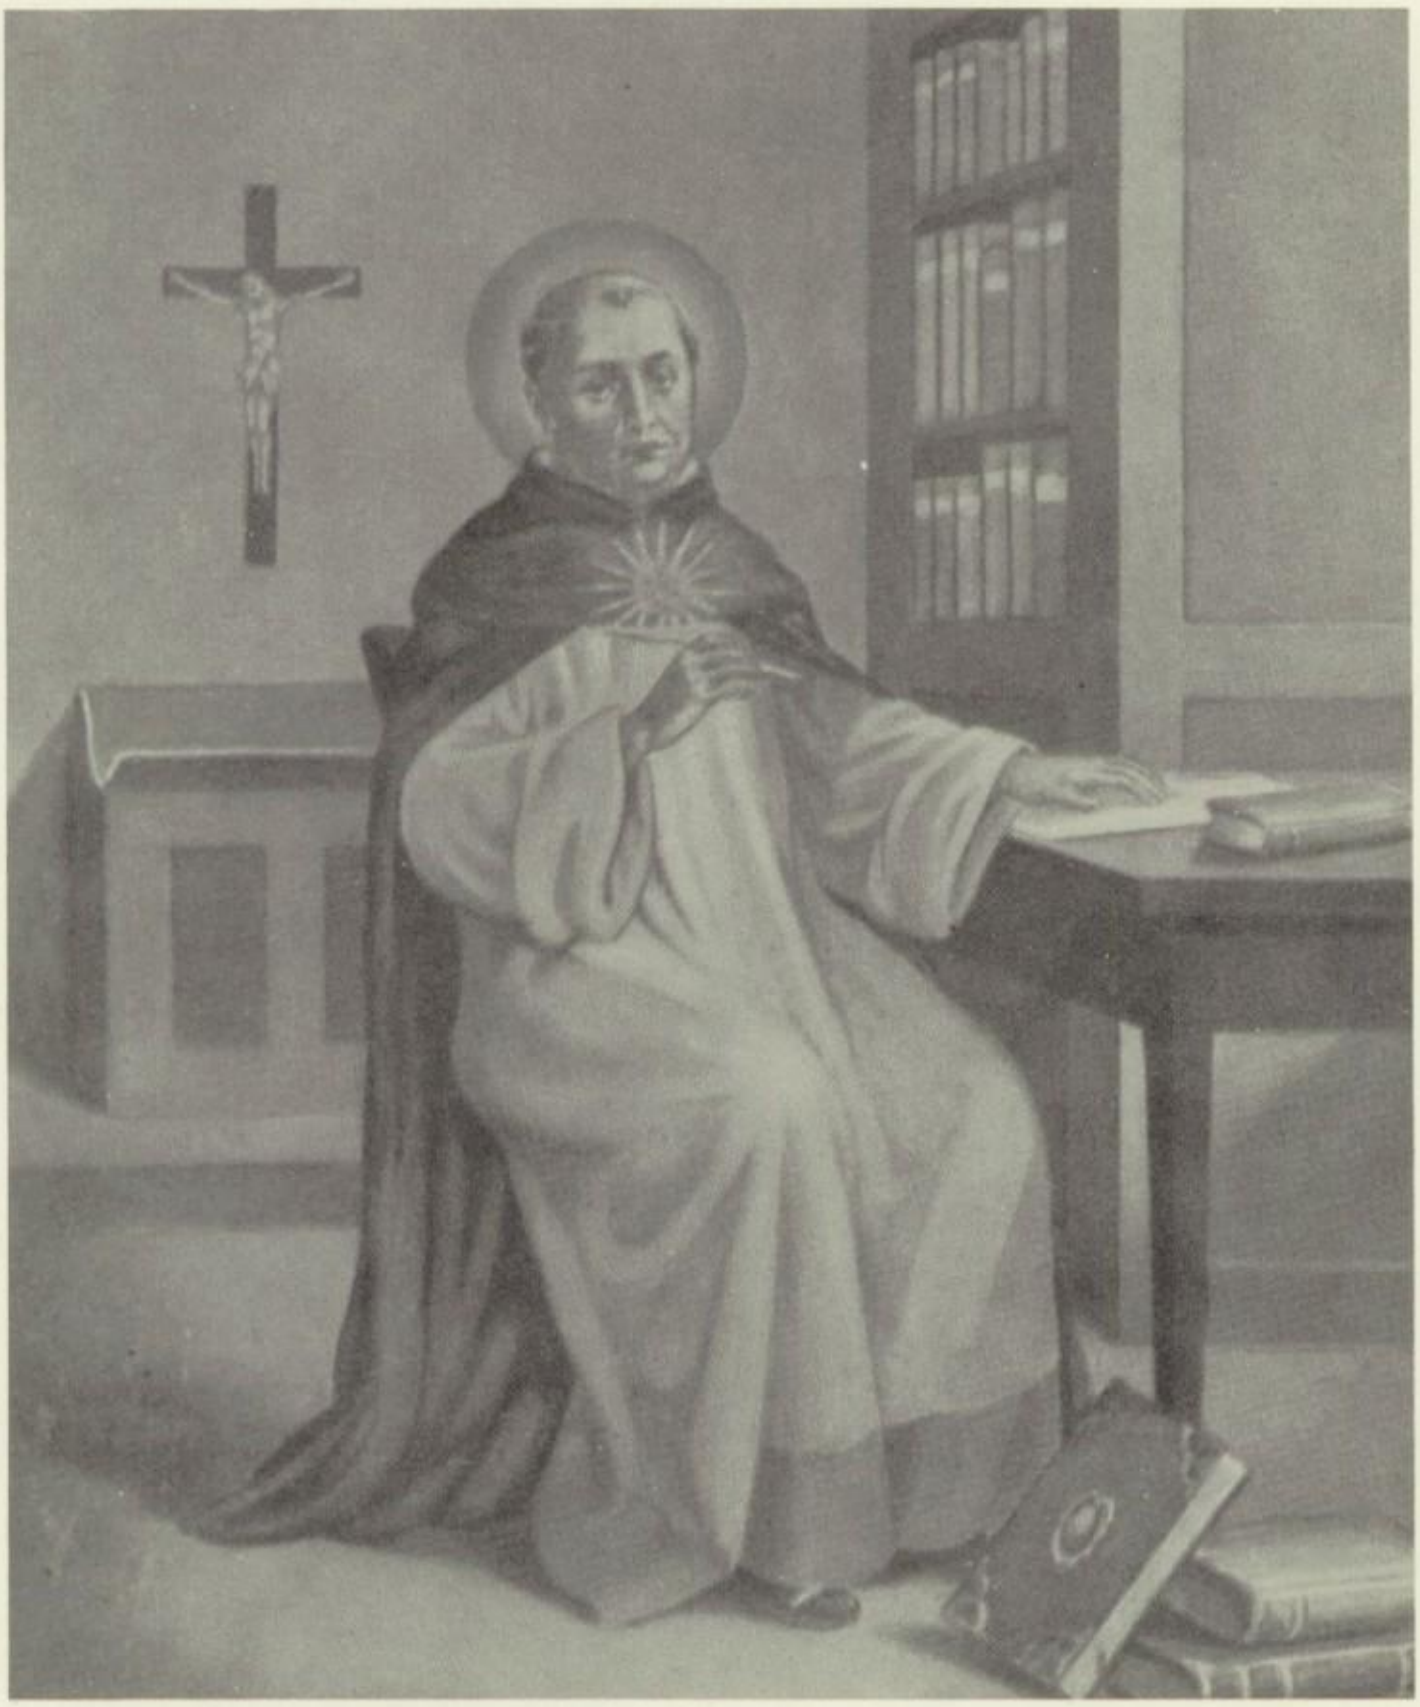
Thomas d'Aquin naquit pres de Naples, Italie, en 1225. Encore enfant, il donne des signes etonnants d'une intelligence fort precoce. Alors qu'on l'amene a l'ecole chez les Peres Benedictins, il adresse au bon moine qui l'accueille cette simple question: "Qu'est-ce que Dieu?" Et, remarquez-le bien, il n'a que cinq ans.

Pour trouver une reponse a cette question. Thomas vivra tous les jours de sa vie.

Il commence par lutter victorieusement contre sa famille qui veut l'empecher d'entrer chez les dominicains. Une fois revetu de l'habit noir et blanc de Saint Dominique, il ne pense plus qu'a son ame, a l'ame de ses freres, a l'Eglise et a Dieu. Et il travaille. Il travaille nuit et jour jusqu'a en mourir a l'age de quarante-neuf ans.

Ce n'est pas pour rien que le Pape Leon XIII l'a choisi comme le patron de toutes les ecoles catholiques. Car, de nos jours, il semble bien que trop d'etudiants oublient que, meme en dehors des periodes d'examens, leur vie d'etudiant doit etre une vie d'etude.

Demandons donc a saint Thomas d'Aquin, a qui nous offrons notre annuaire en hommage, de nous donner le gout du travail et l'amour de l'etude. Demain, dans la vie, nour serons de vrais Americains et de vrais catholiques si nous mettons au service de nos freres et notre tete et notre coeur. Apres tout, notre pays et l'Eglise ne nous demandent qu'une chose: etre des hommes.



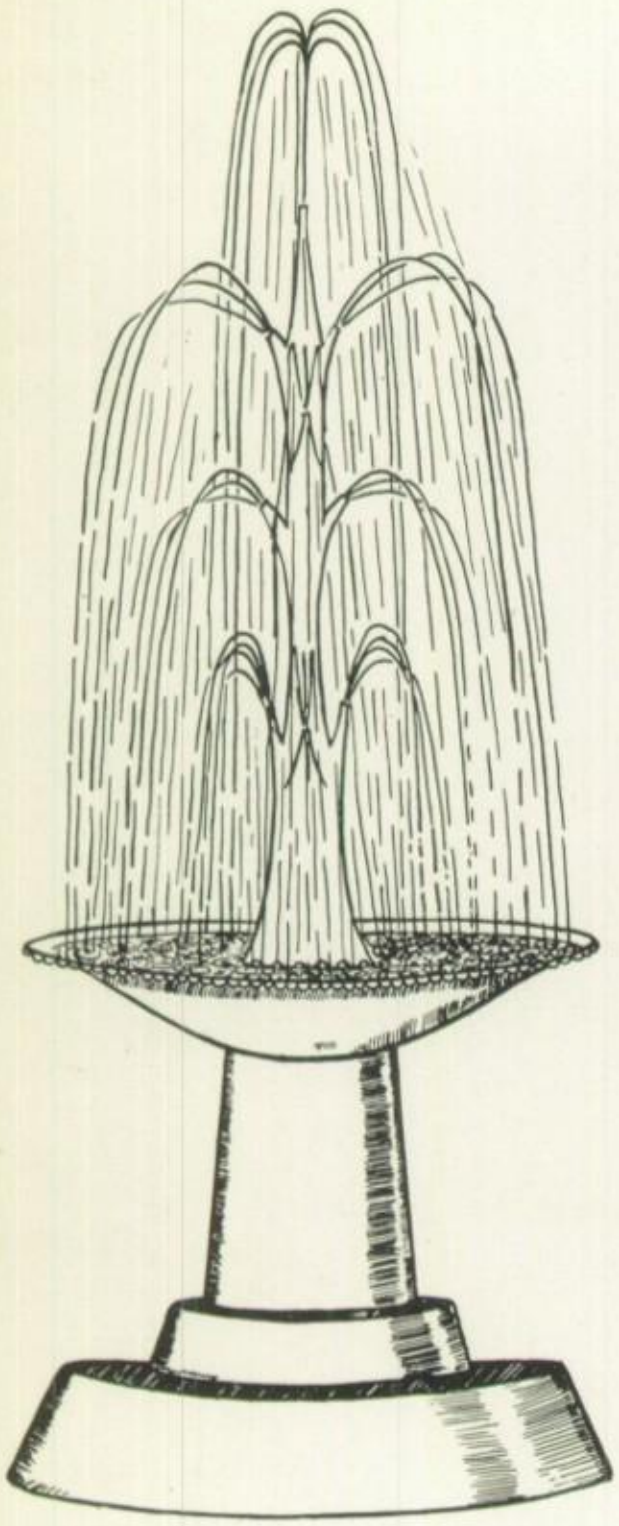
DEDICATION

We dedicate our Yearbook to the families in which we have grown from our tenderest years to this day.

We feel acutely the weight of the enormous debt we owe to our beloved parents, and our hearts swell up with heartfelt gratitude as we recall the countless benefits they have lavished on us: the soothing cares of infancy, the countless worries over our childhood days, and the careful guidance of our adolescent years.

May the Lord Almighty shower His choicest blessings on all the members of our families, keep them closely knit in fondest love and make them all sincerely desirous of changing the world into a better place to live in, by spreading around the contagion of saintly living and the charm of sympathetic understanding.

L'EDUCATION FONTAINE DE JOIE



Semblable aux filets d'eau jaillis d'une fontaine
Qui giclent en fusee et pleuvent en chantant,
Dans la vasque ou reluit un soleil eclatant,
L'education orne une existence humaine.

Elle est source de joie et inonde le coeur
D'un bonheur indicible emane de Dieu meme.
De l'education le service supreme
Est de faire fleurir dans l'ame la ferveur.

Grace a elle l'esprit s'entr'ouvre a la science.
Ses nobles facultes en savourent le fruit.
Et l'etude reserve a celui qui s'instruit
Des charmes du savoir la douce jouissance.

Le corps beneficie en une large part
Des bienfaits de l'effort que sans cesse elle impose.
Et la societe sur elle se repose:
Elle est de ses decrets le fidele rempart.

Jeune homme, veux-tu faire un succes de ta vie?
Sois fidele toujours a ses enseignements,
Car l'education te montre, a tous moments,
L'ideal, et au vrai bonheur elle convie.

Frere Leon-Victor.

SENIORS

MAURICE PETIT

Maurice's name is a byword for unfailing generosity and constant willingness to devote oneself for the school organizations. He has served on the yearbook staff with unflinching devotedness. His pleasant smile has been instrumental in building lasting friendships. His unpredictable sallies, ingenuous repartees and "what-did-I-say-again?" attitudes have radiated warmth and pleasure among his appreciative classmates. Help us to remember, Maurice, that "every cloud has its silver lining".

Yearbook Staff: 4.

BERNARD THEROUX

"Bernie" attache à son nom une réputation d'étudiant modèle. Sa frêle constitution ne l'empeche pas d'exceller dans les différentes branches du savoir. Doué d'une plume remarquable il compose avec égale aisance en anglais et en francais. Notre journaliste en herbe compte déjà plusieurs articles dans "l'Indépendant." Le dicton: "dans les petits pots se mettent les meilleurs onguents," s'applique ici à merveille.

RENE BANVILLE

Rene is everybody's friend. His genial sympathy and spontaneous generosity cause him to rank high in the appreciation of his classmates. His remarkable achievements on the basketball court coupled with rare sportsmanship have enshrined him in the hearts of big and small alike, and long will Rene's name be remembered as synonymous for "Prevost gentlemanliness."

LEON BOUDRIA

A gay spirit has this fellow. So gay, indeed, that he seems to think of little else but pleasure. He is good natured and quite humoristic at times. He always comes out with a felicitous crack to ease up a tense situation. May your assets pay you dividends in your chosen field.

RONALD DUVAL

Ronnie is the athletic type: he likes all sports, especially basketball. He possesses a keen sense of humor and is never without a joke. He is carefree, never lets anything worry him, and so gets along with everyone. May the years bring him happiness and success. Good luck, Ronnie.

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Basketball: 1-2-3.

ROGER GUERETTE

Roger est le type de l'élève qu'on ne remarque pas dans une classe au premier abord. Silencieux comme un pape, il ne se préoccupe que d'accomplir à la perfection son devoir d'écolier. (Avis à quelques copains . . .) Heureusement, le succès répond aux efforts de cet étudiant qui brigue les premières places. Nous nous rappellerons toujours ton bonifiant exemple, ami.

Orchestra: 1-2; Bowling: 2-3; Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Band: 3.

ROBERT LEVESQUE

"Bob" pour les intimes; blond aux yeux bleus, lèvres découpées, son charme ingénu lui a ouvert les portes les plus austères. Caractère enjoué, actif, il ne saurait rester longtemps en repos. Il sait taquiner avec tant d'à propos et si peu de malice qu'on ne pourrait lui en vouloir. Le connaître, c'est l'aimer. Nous lui souhaitons bonheur et succès dans le chemin de la vie.

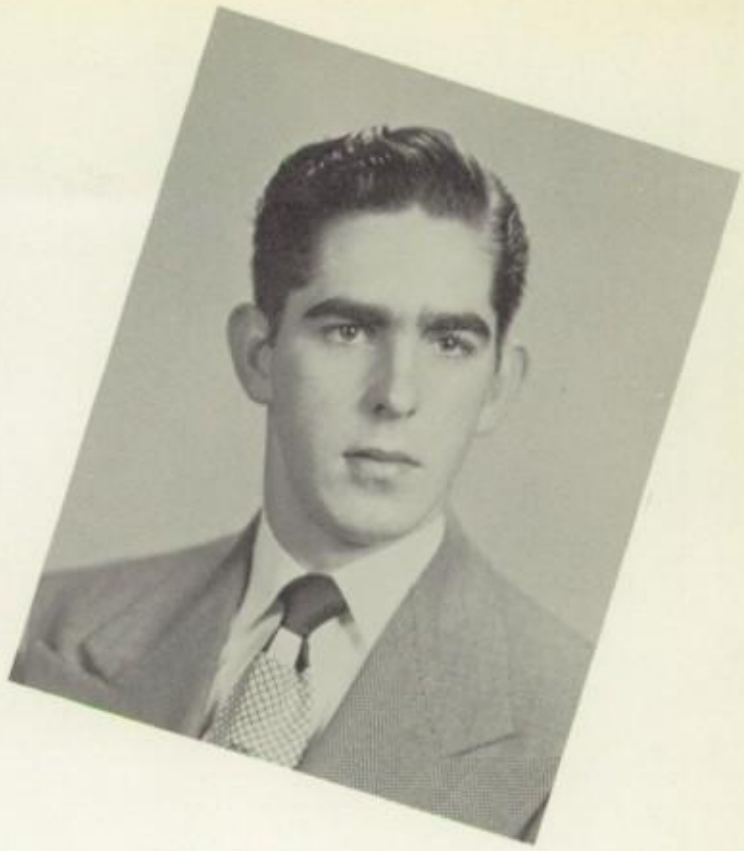
He is always ready to help someone in his own ingenious way, and we are sure that fully-deserved success awaits him in all his future undertakings.

MAURICE CLAIRMONT



In popularity, Maurice is second to none. Carefree and easy going ,he is the playboy of the class. He became known as "The Terror of the Narry League" because of his speed, excellent play making and tireless energy. Fred Astaire would be very much astonished to witness Maurice's revolving gyrations on the dance floor. His ambition is to become a real estate agent. A successful future seems assured to him.

AIME BERGER

Aimé is an example of the saying that "Good things come in small packages." His affable manners and winning smile have conquered all those who have had to deal with him. He is a happy-go-lucky lad as we have discovered, and doubtless, will not let the cares of this world rest too heavily upon his shoulders. His never-say-die spirit will bring him the success which he well deserves.

Glee Club: 1-2; Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Basketball: 1-2; Orchestra: 1.

ROGER BOISSONNEAULT

Roger is a good listener rather than a glib talker. He takes a deep, if apparently passive, interest in school undertakings. He has nevertheless merited his diploma, and looks forward to a successful career in the Air Corps. Our blessings will accompany you all the way. Good luck, Roger.

Glee Club: 1-2-3-4.

DONALD DUPUIS

Don is a very likable chap who delights in doing things for others. A winning smile and striking personality make him a class favorite. Troubles of the outside world do not seem to dim his optimistic outlook on life. His initiative and resourcefulness make him an important cog in the success of extra-curricular activities. His good humor and ready wit provide him with an answer for all occasions. Good luck to you, Don, in your future conquest, and may success be your wreath of victory.

DANIEL LACHANCE

Daniel est un petit bout d'homme sérieux et respecté de tous. Son ardeur exemplaire et son application constante lui assureront le succès convoité. Sa ténacité au travail est devenue légendaire dans la classe des gradués et longtemps encore son exemple demeurera comme un puissant stimulant pour ceux qui ne sont pas encore inspirés du "démon" de l'étude. Merci, Daniel, et bonne chance: nous sommes meilleurs pour t'avoir connu.

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Altar Boys: 1-2-3-4.

DONALD PHENIX

Ce garçon nourrit la belle ambition d'aller au collège, afin de se préparer à sa carrière de pharmacien. Ses belles qualités naturelles, son remarquable entregent, sa voix richement timbrée, le tout s'ajoutant à un extérieur agréable le prépare éminemment à sa carrière délicate au service d'un public exigeant. Bonne chance, Donald.

BERNARD FORCIER

Bernard or "Babe" as he is better known to his friends has been endowed by God with a deep sense of humor and a genial personality. Whenever there is a lull in the conversation he blurts out with a timely joke. His mind is set on a pharmaceutical career; the road is long and arduous but his ability to "stick it out" will lead him to success.

Glee Club: 1-2; Basketball: 1; Cheerleader: 3; Sodality: 1-2-3-4.

ERNEST BRISSON

Ernest, sometimes called "Breezy", is very quiet and unobtrusive. Out of school he spends his time hunting. His unpretentious manner has carved him a big place in everybody's heart. He is known by his slow gait, enigmatic smile, and easy going, accommodating temperament. Difficulties will never stymie his progress on the path of success. Good luck to you, Ernest.

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Class Officer: 2; Paper Staff: 1-2-4.

ROBERT GAGNE

"Bob" is a pleasant fellow to talk to. An earnest and sympathetic leader, he is a fine example for others to follow. Nature has endowed him with a happy-go-lucky character and sympathetic understanding. We predict a brilliant future to this gifted young man.

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Glee Club: 1-2-3-4; Orchestra: 1-2; Ass't Librarian: 1.

ROGER CHAREST

Roger est aussi paisible et aussi laborieux qu'une fourmi. Il plaît à tous par la distinction de ses manières et la réserve de sa conduite. "Le bruit ne fait pas de bien et le bien ne fait pas de bruit" semble être sa devise préférée. Puissent ton inaltérable courage et ta douce gaieté ne jamais t'abandonner en face des difficultés à venir, Roger.

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Class Officer: 1; Glee Club: 1.

LOUIS BOULAY

"Lou" ranks amongst the most popular students at Prevost. His winsome smile and friendly disposition have won him a place in the hearts of all. Although not a bookworm, Louis is a good average student and excellent athlete of Prevost High. May God bless you, Louis, and assist you always in your undertakings.

Baseball: 1-2-3-4; Basketball: 1-2-3-4.

RENE THIBAULT

René ne reconnaît point encore de quelle utilité peut être un microphone, vu que sa voix de stentor peut s'en passer facilement: toutefois ses voisins souhaiteraient qu'il connût les effets et le mode d'emploi de la sourdine. Soyons sérieux: René, c'est le type de l'organisateur prévoyant et habile et du garçon qui sait s'oublier pour se dévouer corps et âme au succès de la cause qu'il a épousée. Nous lui laissons nos souhaits de bonheur et de succès dans la vie.

School Paper Staff: 4; Glee Club: 2-3-4; Yearbook Staff: 4; Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Baseball: 1.

LEO MORISSETTE

Gifted with an artistic temperament which has been further enhanced by his reading of good literature and appreciation of the more serious type of music, Leo is a person whose souvenir will haunt the memories of the rising generations of students long after he has graduated from Prevost High. His intellectual endowment and ability to orate have entitled him to have his portrait hung in the Prevost High gallery of achievement. Best of luck, Leo, and may God bless you always.

Glee Club: 1-2; Debating: 3; Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Bowling: 1-2-3; Dramatics: 2-3.

ROGER PERRON

Meet Roger, the youngest member of the class. How he ever got so far in so short a time is still a mystery to us. His winsome smile and friendly disposition have won him a place in the hearts of all. Cheerfulness is written all over him. His claim to fame lies in his native exuberance. We predict a brilliant future for this young man in whatever field he may choose. Godspeed, "Pro", and happy landings!

Basketball: 1; Glee Club: 1-2.

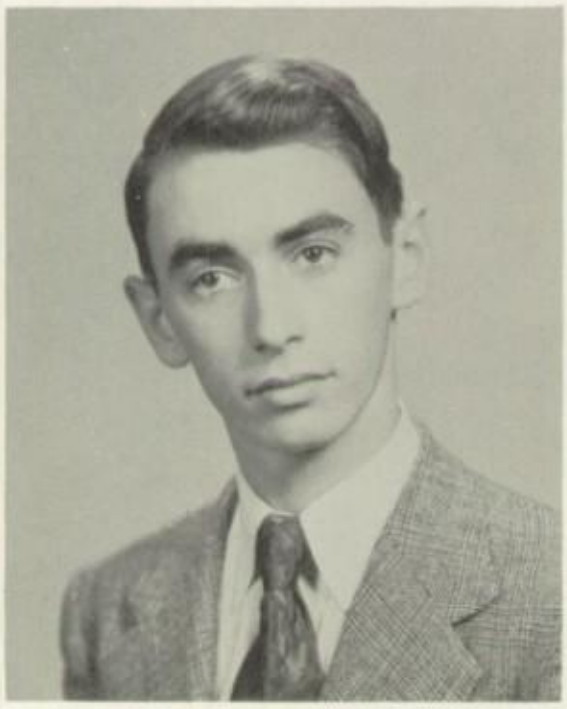
HENRY MERCIER

Scarcely noticed but always present, Henry is a fellow who will rapidly achieve success. His efficiency in baseball makes him a real asset to our team. Possessed of a fine character and deeply concerned about intellectual achievement, Henry has developed into a model student. May God bless you in your future vocation!

Baseball: 1-2-3-4.



RAYMOND BOUCHARD

Unassuming but exceedingly intelligent "Butch" ranks among the highest in the class. His unrelenting efforts have assured him a high place among the honor students. He is the mathematical genius of the class of '50. Nearly all of his talent extends in the direction of numbers, roots, sines, cosines and formulae. Endowed with great adaptability and habits of orderly work and blossoming forth in a winsome smile, Raymond possesses all that is needed to reach the highest summits of achievement.

Debating: 3; Yearbook Staff: 4.

LEONARD LEVASSEUR

Lenny, is known for his winning personality and his ability in making true friends. Though he often acts as though he hated the world and everyone in it, yet the tenderness and kindness in his eyes reveal the innermost feelings of his heart. Len does not like to be driven. He is generous and even at times waxes enthusiastic over his studies—when his scholastic successes enable him to remain on the varsity team lineup—yet he generally prefers to let the water flow leisurely under his bridge. May life spare you, Len!

Basketball: 1-2-3-4; Glee Club: 1-2; Sodality: 1-2-3-4.

ROBERT LANDRY

Bob, comme un rayon de soleil fait fleurir la joie dès qu'il apparaît. Toujours souriant, il apporte à sa tâche quotidienne une indomptable énergie. Robert est un des premiers dans la catégorie de ceux qui ne calculent pas leur peine lorsqu'il s'agit de rendre service aux camarades. Que cette recette de ta popularité, cher compagnon, t'attire plus tard les coeurs de ton entourage.

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Baseball: 1; Class Officer: 2-3; School Paper Staff: 4; Yearbook Staff: 4; Dramatics: 3; Sodality Officer: 3.

NORMAND BOUTIN

Normand is a hard-working student whose name often figures on the honor roll. His humor and ability to assume an innocent mien after cracking one of his "corny gags" have endeared him to his fellow classmates. Whatever profession he chooses, we are sure he will be a success by dint of hard work and application to the business at hand.

Glee Club: 1-2; Dramatics: 2.

DANIEL SEYMOUR

Frenchy vint du Canada il y a environ quatre ans. Il fit son entrée à Prévost comme étudiant de première année supérieure. Il se signala bientôt à l'attention de ses condisciples par ses progrès rapides dans l'étude de l'anglais. Peu avare de son temps et de ses talents il sait se dévouer pour son école. Son bon esprit et sa gaieté communicative lui gagnent l'affection de tous. Bonne chance, Daniel!

Cheerleader: 3-4; Ass't Librarian: 4.

NORMAND JOLIVET

Normand sait être joyeux, espiègle à l'occasion. Il n'est pas précisément un enthousiaste du livre, toutefois il sait se dévouer lorsque les circonstances l'exigent. Amateur de musique, il mène une vie quelque peu sonore. Bonne chance, Normand, puisse ta vie rester joyeuse comme une chanson!

Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Glee Club: 1-2-3-4; Orchestra: 1-2; Bowling: 1-2.

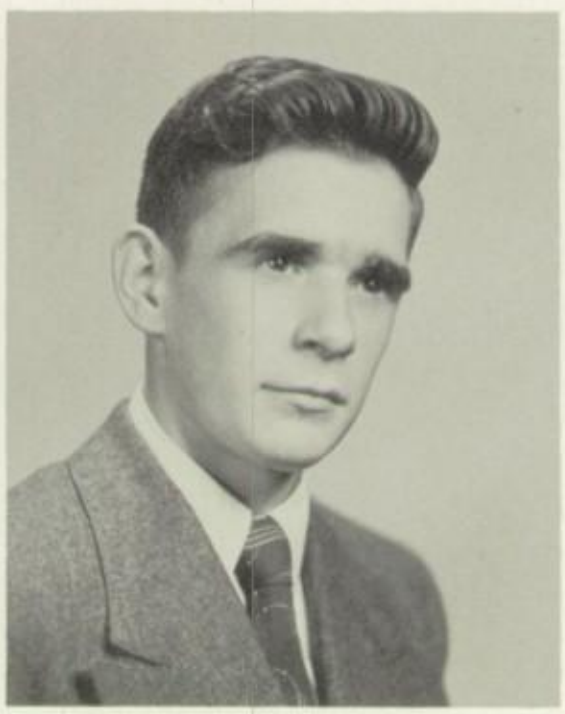
ROLAND CASTONGUAY

Roland, though shy and retiring, is a likeable companion. His candid appearance, natural distinction of manners and childlike playfulness make him a favorite of the senior class. We hope life will be as easy on him as his school years have proved to be. Face life with a smile, Roland, and it will not frown on you.



RAYMOND GODDU

Raymond can be proposed as a model Prevost gentleman. His keenness for study is attested by his regular appearance on the Principal's list. Though usually very serious, yet Raymond can sport a most engaging smile. He never strove for popularity yet won universal admiration for his scholastic achievement and excellence of behavior. May Prevost have many more students like you, Raymond!

Projection Club: 1; Class Officer: 3; Ass't Librarian: 3.

JEAN AUBIN

Taille moyenne, chevelure blonde et ondulée, figure épanouie front intelligent, regard limpide, tel est "Junior". Ses qualités morales répondent à ses attraits physiques. Jean fut le Francois de Sales de notre classe. Sur le point de te quitter, Jean, nous sentons se resserrer plus fortement les liens de l'amitié qu'avait formés ton attachante personnalité. Bienheureux les doux car ils posséderont la terre.

EDWARD KELLY

Edward is of the highly intellectual type: he delights in literature, music and religion. Exceptional distinction of manners, nobleness of aspirations and winning ways constitute the perfect blend of his pleasing personality. His only concern seems to be: to please others; his greatest worry: to hurt other's feelings. A real gentleman: God bless him!

Oratory: 1; Class Officer: 2; Debating: 3; Yearbook Staff: 4.

NORMAND VALIQUETTE

Qui ne connaît notre diminutif "Zeke"? Vif comme une anguille au jeu de ballon-au-panier, athlète comme un professionel au baseball, appliqué comme un moine à ses études, il sut gagner la sympathie de tous: maîtres et élèves. Remarquable par sa petite taille, Normand l'est plus encore par son grand coeur. A ses prières, à ses études, au jeu, il s'adonne 100%. Continue, Normand, l'effort fait les forts. La valeur n'attend pas le nombre des "coudées".

Baseball: 1-2-3-4; Class Officer: 1-2; Basketball: 1-2-3-4; Altar Boys: 1-2-3-4; Sodality Officer: 2-3.

RAYMOND DURETTE

Raymond is the mystery man of our class. He is very seldom noticed, but is always present with ears wide open. He is known as a sociable and frolicsome boy. His sociability and good fellowship will earn him a large share of life's great joys. May God always preside over your undertakings, Ray!

Glee Club: 2-3; Sodality: 1-2-3-4; Orchestra: 1-2-3.

ROBERT CYR

Robert, svelte garcon au tempérament timide, nous vient de la paroisse St' Jean Baptiste. Toujours quiet il a passé parmi nous presqu'inapercu. En paix avec tout le monde il ne s'est jamais départi de son calme dans les difficultés inhérentes à la carrière étudiante. Semblable au placide général il saura, nous l'espérons, gagner la victoire dans le grand combat de la vie.

ANNEE SAINTE

1950, Année Sainte. Tout le monde parle de cet événement marquant dans l'histoire de l'Eglise. Les journaux, les revues, la radio ne cessent d'y faire allusion. Les agences de voyages font diligence afin de bénéficier de cette effervescence dans le monde catholique.

Rome, le Pape, Lourdes, Fatima, Lisieux: mots magiques qui exercent une emprise irrésistible sur le coeur de tout Catholique sincère. Peut-être n'aurons-nous pas la bonne fortune de faire ce pèlerinage. Nous pouvons du moins prier pour que l'influence de la Papauté s'affirme de plus en plus sur la société moderne et que cet accroissement de ferveur dans le monde catholique imprime un nouvel essor à nos oeuvres et accélère le mouvement de retour à l'unité qui semble se dessiner à l'horizon.

Prions pour que la santé du Souverain Pontife se maintienne malgré l'écrasante besogne inhérente à toute année sainte.

THE PREVOST."

The seniors of '50 took it upon themselves to resume the publication of a school sheet. Early in September, R. Gagne was elected editor-in-chief with R. Landry, assistant editor and R. Levesque, secretary-treasurer. They formed the nucleus of the organization with the class reporters who were: Senior Class, Aime Berger, Ernest Brisson; Junior Class, Martin Powers; Sophomore A: Donald Maltais; Sophomore B: Robert Sorel; Freshman A: Roma Dupuis; Freshman B: Jean Theberge.

Reports on extra curricular activities, basketball or baseball, figured in every issue, Rene Thibault, doing a splendid job as Sports' Editor. R. Levesque and R. Thibault handled the circulation of the paper quite expertly.

The printing of the paper was done at the Brothers' Home on Eastern Avenue.

BASKETBALL ROUND-UP

Prevost High, defending Narragansett Basketball Champions, opened the 1949-1950 season on December third by defeating St. Louis High of Biddeford at the Boys' Club. The Maple Leafs showed the same remarkable teamwork and dazzling speed that enabled them to head the circuit in 1948-49. They then proceeded to down a stubborn Tech. Junior Varsity, and rout a less adept opponent from St. Anthony High of New Bedford in two friendly exhibition games.

This auspicious start warranted the buoyant confidence with which they tackled a strong Somerset five on January third, thereby initiating Narry league competition. It was a hard-fought contest and the outcome remained doubtful till the final minutes of the game when Frascatore caged two field goals to insure victory.

Capitalizing on fast breaks and excellent bucket play, the Nawrockimen, in successive contests, downed Bristol Aggies, whipped Dighton, overwhelmed Case and sadly outscored an inexperienced Westport team to run their winning streak to five.

Throughout these successful encounters "Zeke" Valiquette and "Len" Levasseur specialized in defensive work, while "Moe" Clairmont set up the plays, thus permitting Prevost aces "Chuck" Frascatore and Rene Banville to tally high scores, each alternating with the other in garnering top scoring laurels.

Stiffer opposition was due; the fatal day was January 20th. An inspired Diman five gave our boys a gruelling battle. After thirty-two minutes of magnificent play midst the roof-raising din of wildly cheering fans, the Maple Leafs found themselves frustrated by one point. The attempt to establish their supremacy over the O'Keefe-men had failed. Diman won 37-36.

Returning to its own gymnasium, the underdog Prevost team bounced back to humiliate a towering Dartmouth aggregation to the lilting tune of 49-35. Prevost followers savored the joys of triumph and caressed visions of their favorites pitting their savoir-faire against tournament foes in Boston Garden play. Alas! "The best laid plans of mice and men! . . ."

January 27th spelled disaster to our hopes: announcement was made that participation in extra-Diocesan tournaments was disapproved. Gloom settled over our camp. That same night, even though the newspaper proclaimed in boldface type: "Prevost favored in Somerset Game," the Maple Leaf rooters beheld a team sapped of its customary zest and vitality. One lone man kept his regular pace posting 21 markers and saving the East-Enders from utter disaster.

The will to win returned however, and Dighton, Case, Westport succumbed one after another before the rampaging Fighting Frenchmen. Unfortunately the spurt was shortlived and on January 14th, at Anawan Hall, Diman again subdued a stubborn Prevost quintet by a heart-breaking two-point margin to clinch the crown.

The Slocum-Roaders from Dartmouth, still smarting under the stinging rebuff suffered in the previous encounter, used their height advantage to hand the Nawrockimen their worst thrashing of the season. We lost by seven points: 46-53. Tension subsided and the White and Blue easily disposed of their last league opponent, the half-time score showing a 56-17 lead; our favorites played the last two cantos literally "sitting down."

Our boys next travelled to Biddeford, Maine, and there, baffled their class A opponents by dazzling speed, ingenious plays and superb marksmanship. The massacre recalled to the history student's mind, Napoleon's Last Charge, since it was deftly administered "A la Waterloo" style.

The season's final game was played at Ashley Gym, New Bedford. There, the Maple Leafs put to good use all their basketball ability to outwit St. Anthony High completely.

Thus ended an interesting season. Four let-downs, and fifteen victories testified to Mr. Nawrocki's masterful coaching. His profound knowledge of the game adroitly and patiently communicated to the boys, produced a marvelous combination of basketeers unmatched in the history of Prevost.

Congratulations to them all, and though four "Starters" will graduate in June, we know that next year the new squad of athletes will become the artisans of glorious victories. Congratulations are especially due to Maurice Clairmont and Charles Frascatore who earned positions on the All-Narry-League first team. Rene Banville was given second-team rating, and deserves honorable mention for a splendid season of basketball activity.

PREVOST AT BIDDEFORD

QUOTED FROM THE NEWSPAPER REPORT OF THE GAME:

Unleashing a terrific second half offensive that buried their opponents under an avalanche of baskets, Prevost High hoopmen whipped St. Louis School of Biddeford, Me., for the second time this season, 66-38, Saturday night at Biddeford High School gym. The first game, played in this city, ended, 55-31.

The Maine Parochials kept pace with the Fall River visitors for the better part of two periods, and were down only six points, 24-18, at intermission. But they were outclassed completely in the last half by Steve Nawrocki's Maple Leafs.

Prevost gave what was perhaps its best shooting display of the season against St. Louis, hitting for 28 fielders, and 10 out of 12 free throws for a show of accuracy Biddeford fans have seldom witnessed.

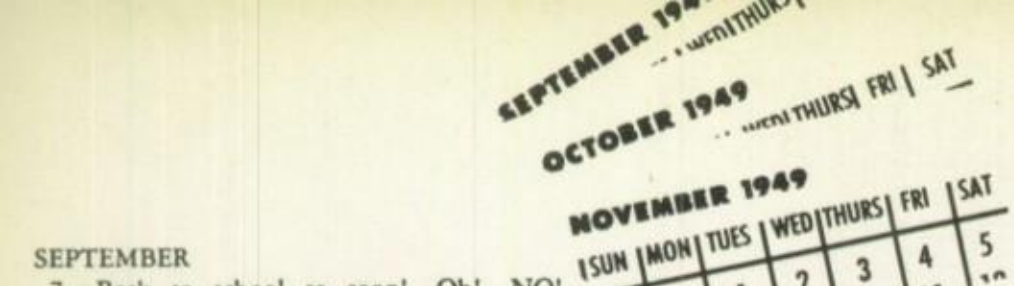
SCHOOL CALENDAR '49

Fall

The elms are clad in yellows,
The oaks in scarlet bold,
The sumacs in vermilion,
The fields in russet gold.

James J. Daly, S.J.



SEPTEMBER

7—Back to school so soon! Oh! NO!

13—Instructor: 'The efficacy of your statement was lost in the circumlocutious, vituperant element of your speech.' Kelly: "Quite so."

14—Kelly brings five dictionaries to school. His motto: "Be Prepared."

19—Brother Thomas: Dig, gentlemen, dig.

20—Five members of the Senior Class join W.P.A.

30—Charest bruises a forefinger in a rugged tiddly-winks game.

OCTOBER

4—A cloud of dust, a squeal of tires and the "Mad Demon of the Highways," shoots out into the streets.

7—Gagne elected editor of school paper.

11—Petit finally discovers what the clutch pedal is for.

13—J. V. shoveling squad organized.

14—Kelly trips the light . . . . . Fantastic! ! !

17—Boissonneault complains of malnutrition. He didn't eat during class this morning.

26—City now accommodating Plourde by changing the direction of its one-way streets.

NOVEMBER

1—"Rapid Robert" Cyr clocked in at 5.7 m.p.h.

4—DO NOT DISTURB . . . STUDYING?

8—Thibault must be thinking of his "Wild Irish Rose," for he now wears a green sweater to school.

14—Guerette earns title of "Blushing Bachelor."

18—Levasseur must be pretty low on funds. It looks as though he can't buy razor blades. Or does he want to become a hermit?

28—Exams—Yikes! I forgot to study.

Accipe signum victoriae . . .
Where on earth were those trophies?

Well done, Henry!

Is he really overworked, Doctor?

Who got 99%? Was it Gilles Desmarais or David Medeiros?

Democratic assertions are not always democratically received.

A 75th Anniversary

I hope I made it. — Don't worry Zeke, You're on the Principal's list.

The manner of presentation often enhances the value of a gift.

They like the noise they make.

That's a real mike and a real transmitting system.

This is station WPHS.

Contented Fans! "You haven't got the team we have."

What, are school hours too short?

Venite adoremus!

One at a time, please!

Go easy, doctor, I'm nervous.

Leave me alone! I'm not crazy. I didn't take those jewels.

SCHOOL CALENDAR '50

Spring

May is building her house of petal and blade;
Of the roots of the oak is the flooring made,
With a carpet of mosses and lichen and clover,
Each small miracle over and over,
And tender, traveling green things strayed.

Richard Le Gallienne

MARCH

7—The rings come at last. Boy! what a country this is! We now have "snail" express.
8—Boulay: "I wore out a good pair of trunks warming the bench, this year."
17—St. Patrick's Day. No one allowed in school without a touch of green.
28—Ever since "Red" Goddu got his license, the city's death-rate has increased.

APRIL

1— APRIL FOOL!
5—We have finally come to a conclusion. "Zeke" lost his vocal cords in his early childhood.—Remember it's Holy Week.
10—The seniors turned the school paper over to the juniors.
14—Happy Holidays. And remember, the sleep? you save may be your own.

5—Mercier's goal: to be a .400-hitter.
8—Since the end of the year is so close, the seniors decided to put a tail on Banville: he's our treasurer.
12—Boy, it's so hot today, my perspiration is perspiring.
31—Perron slipped up during English this morning. He said "tHree."

JUNE

12—Exams, prom girls, a corsage, Pop's car. I can't stand it any longer. It's driving me crazy, do you hear?
18—Sunday, graduation . . . end of an old life . . .
20—Prom night . . . beginning of a new . . .

Off we go to Attleboro!

Roll on to Victory!

If you don't know what a clambake is, ask Roger Sevigny.

Long live America!

The school is snowed in! Hurray!

Do you mean to give us a free treat, Brother?

Look out, Roger, Pull the right string!

Democracy at work.

Thank you, photographer!
